EDITORIAL

Last week there were several sad Kindergarteners in our school. They had worked hard to decorate a bulletin board and were proud to see their efforts beautifying our hall. But their pleasure was short, for within a few days someone had spoiled everything by tearing down some of the drawings. This seems to be our everyday behavior.

We are in school first of all to learn, but along the way we can also have a lot of fun. But it is not fun to deface bulletin boards, uproot flowers, throw stones at the janitors, or plague our teachers. These things hurt our school and its students, who are our friends and ourselves.

WANT AN EXTRA BOOK?

Our library has improved greatly ever since Mrs. Glackin has been working on it in the afternoons or after school. We want to thank her very much for the good work she has done.

If you finish reading your book before the time is up and you want to get another one you can go between 1:30 and 2:15 daily. Miss Sherman will be there to check your book in or out.

Please do not keep your book overdue as it keeps others from reading it.

ADDED ATTRACTIONS

Believe it or not, we actually like to stay after school these days. What for?

Such things as games and sports. We have after-school activities every day but Monday for children in grades four through eight. The favorite game is chess. The children who know how to play come at 3:15 till 4:15. The ones that don't know how to play come at 4:15 and get help from Mr. Horree and Mr. Connell.

The Gumberoo [an original tall tale]
The Gumberoo lives on the other side of very strong and has whip-like arms. He walks upright and is covered with yellow hair. Persnowplow-like nose.

A favorite food of the Gumberoo is a root called blimbo. In trying to get this root he digged in the ground he really digs

KINDERGARTEN CLASS — Miss Cooper

Our first year in school has been a busy one. We have over fifty children in Kindergarten so one class comes in the morning, another in the afternoon. Sra. Sánchez comes to teach us Spanish each day.

We have met many new friends and learned new things. We have learned to work and to play together. At first we used paint, crayons, puzzles and blocks. Now we know how to use pencils and books.

We always like to sing and dance and hear stories. Now we are ready for First Grade.

Morning Kindergarten — Karl Menzer, Ileana Estévez, Ned Whitlock, Nella Hospedales, Craig Vanden, Joanna Johnston, Olivo Romero, Kathy Moorhead, David Outterson, Carl White, Carolyn Beal, David Pendracky, Heide Ross, Kerry Sue Robinson, Alexander Bassell, Tom Ricks, María Valle, Humberto López, Jan Derry, Ramón Cesta, Maivy Winterdaal, Martha Nell Mixon. Absent Paula Korsko, Ricky Reynolds, Carlos Cortés, Renata Perusini.

GRADE ONE — Miss Keulman and Srta. González

We have been learning to read and write. We elected class officers and made our own classroom and playground rules. We watched plants grow. We made a cardboard train, airplane and boat. We invited other children to come and see them. We wrote stories and poems about them. We have been very busy this year.

GRADE ONE — Miss Keulman and Srta. González

Keith Trahan, Frank Traas, Michael Powers, Vicente Cupello, Stevie Butler, Néstor Algernon, Benjamin Romero, Bill Morehead, Adriana González, Margarita De Armas, Mary Albright, Virginia Brink, Virginia Rodríguez, Marilyn Calimán, Srta. González, Aira Cortés, Claudio DeMartini. Absent Judith Alvarez.

En español, nosotros aprendimos muchas cosas sobre la vivienda. Visitamos la clínica y también hicimos cuadernos de trabajo con muchos dibujos. Sabemos muchos cantos y poemas. En aritmética contamos y ordenamos, también jugamos varios juegos. Estamos listos para leer y escribir en español el próximo año.

SECOND GRADE — Miss Jones and Srta. Barrera

Kurt Menzer, Rex Jennings, Antonio De Armas, Gary Johnson, Macky Warden, Nicholas Bennet, Freddy Forsman, Marcos Nieto, Mauralee Demmon, Holly Gesner, Elizabeth Glackin, Jeannette Caliman, Mrs. Derry - Substitute Teacher, Absent Eulalia Urieh.

This year we studied plants, animals, community workers and transportation. We learned how to do "real" writing. We had so much fun on the trips we made to different parts of our peninsula. The trips helped us understand better what we were studying. All of our class parties were very nice. We played "Pin the Nose on Rudolph" at our Christmas party. Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer, has never had so many noses in so many funny places.

SECOND GRADE — Miss Jones and Srta. Barrera

Nosotros ya terminamos seis libros y ahora estamos leyendo "30 Escenas de Animales". Es el libro más bonito porque tiene muchos cuentos.

Nosotros fuimos a muchas partes de la península cuando estudiamos las industrias de Paraguaná. Más que todas nos gustó el Rancho donde había muchas plantas y Los Taques donde había muchos pescadores. Unos de los niños compraron pescados.

Nosotros también sembramos unas semillas en unos vasos y crecieron mucho. También tenemos diez palabras en dictado y ya sabemos escribir con letra corrida.

THIRD GRADE — Mis. Bell and Srta. Quijada

Harold Svorstoel, Arthur Jackson, Félix Rodríguez, Antonio Cappione, John Sciaudone, Stevis Warden, Tommy Cambre, Dale Cleaver, Ann Matthews, Vickie Johnson, Andie Austern, Patty Pinedo, Marilyn Menk, Sandra Campbell, Sandra Nieto, Linda Pendracky, Karla Robinson, María Capulli, Hans Menzer. Absent: Debbie Patterson, Edgar Paz.

This year we learned about life in the city and the country. We read many interesting books and particularly enjoyed the stories by Dr. Suess. We remember Tommy as Santa Claus in our Christmas play which we presented for our mothers. We have enjoyed all our work and play in the Third Grade.

Hemos tenido variadas e interesantes actividades este año. Hicimos unas carteleras muy lindas sobre "La Vida de los Indios" y otra sobre los "Alimentos". ¡Qué bueno fué el cuento sobre "Las Aventuras de Gulliver"! Recordamos todavía nuestra fiesta de Carnaval: los disfraces, los papelillos, los juegos. ¡Qué sabroso fué todo esto!

FOURTH GRADE — Miss Bell and Srta. Quijada

We remember our Social Studies travels to many countries around the world. We had fun working on experiments with air and water. Other memories of Fourth Grade are our Halloween play for our mothers, Carnival masquerade, our numerous holidays and school on Saturdays.

También nosotros hemos tenido un año muy interesante. Hemos aprendido muchas cosas. Conocimos cómo viven y trabajan las abejas. ¡Qué interesante! Oímos narraciones muy buenas como "Las Aventuras de Ulises", y "La Vida de Guillermo Tell", etc. ¡Qué bueno nos quedó nuestro acto de navidad!

FIFTH GRADE — Miss Sherman and Srta. Márquez

Warren Jennings, Mark DeVries, Regan Terrier, Steven Kinghorn, Russell Vanden, Johnny Leverson, Phyllis Sellers, Ann Pinedo, Linda Brink, Janette Ford, Miss Sherman, Mary Ann Rivet, Valerie Glackin, Kay Amos, Farisol Jiménez, Lynn Cameron, Linda Lucet. Absent: Peter Lamperty, Jorge Hospedales.

Our fifth year has been very full of work and fun. This has been a very busy year in the Fifth Grade — full of both work and fun. Such tasks as learning all about the United States and our daily Safety Patrol duties were real work, but we remember the fun we had dramatizing the Santa Fe Trail and the patrol picnics, too. The year had its usual excitement at Hallowe'en, Carnival and Chrismas, and with two of the nicest teachers we have ever had, is one that we will always remember.

En nuestra clase de español las actividades fueron muy interesantes. En la Navidad hicimos un periódico mural muy lindo con la leyenda siguiente: "Gloria a Dios en las Alturas y Paz en la Tierra a los Hombres de Buena Voluntad". Nos interesó muchísimo el trabajo práctico de Historia de Venezuela, donde aprendimos quiénes eran los principales hombres que lucharon por la Independencia. Nos gustó mucho ilustrar nuestros estudios en las carteleras y escribir para el "Pelícano".

SIXTH GRADE — Miss McCann and Srta. Márquez

Billy Russell, Bob Elsen, Andy Connell, Don Menk, Win Nystrom, Lynn Weidler, Lillian Eibl, Voncile Jennings, Jane DeVries, Rosemary Sciaudone, Diane Campbell, Donna McGee, Regina Faherty, Mary Jo Cowan, Joanne Curran, Mrs. Johnston, substitute teacher. Absent: Susan Dixon.

Our subjects this year have been unusually interesting. We enjoyed our studies on the Pan American Union and preparing an exhibit for the rest of the school. Other study highlights were conducting experiments and making exhibits in science. The "Mid-Winter Eve's Fantasy" at Christmas and our literary efforts for the Pelican and Spotlight are activities, that gave us a great deal of experience and are fun to look back on.

El estudio de las Ciencias Sociales este año fué para nosotros muy importante. Realizamos un trabajo de gran significación, dibujamos todos los mapas de Venezuela. Conocemos a través de la Geografía las cosas más importantes de este país. Hicimos algunos trabajos prácticos en la cartelera tales como el estudio del Panamericanismo y las ideas más importantes de Bolívar. En Aritmética y Sistema Métrico Decimal; Las pesas y las medidas. Celebramos con mucho entusiasmo el carnaval.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE — Mrs. DeVries
Sra. Sánchez

Seventh Grade

This has been a year of much learning in many fields. Being with the Eighth Grade has meant sharing activities, both educational and social. As we bid them good-by, we look forward to taking their place for our last year at Escuela Simón Bolívar.

Eighth Grade

This last year has been exciting as well as interesting. Although we had a heavy schedule of study, we also enjoyed the privileges that go with being eighth graders. We had a wonderful formal dance at Christmas and the never-to-be-forgotten trip to Caracas. In leaving we take along memories of happy years in Venezuela.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Members of the Graduating Class — Ladies and Gentlemen:

It was with pleasure that I accepted your invitation to talk to you on this momentous occasion. My first question was which language to use: English or Spanish? After thinking it over, I decided to talk to you in both languages; that is, I shall begin in English and then change over to Spanish, as I am sure that both you and your parents speak and understand it well.

Before going into Spanish, I would like to give you two basic thoughts: Your graduation in Venezuela should mark, not only the opportunity of becoming acquainted with another country, and learning another language, but also the privilege of knowing another people — the people of this country.

I remember that when my family and I moved to the U.S. in 1951 to further my studies at Harvard, my two children did not know a word in English, but when we returned in 1953, they were quite fluent. Perhaps this did not impress me as much as it should have, although it was most gratifying; in my opinion, what was most important — most valuable to them —, was that they had had the opportunity to know and appreciate another people. In the world of today, knowing all people is of prime importance.

No longer limited by distance or boundaries, since distance and boundaries, as you and I well know, today mean nothing, we find ourselves mingling more and more with people of all parts of the world. So as you go forth into our world of today, I feel that the most important message I can pass on to you is: Judge people for what they are. Do not pay much attention to their nationality. How good people are, is what really matters.

You have been living in Venezuela, and will now go on to High School in the United States. I sincerely hope that, not only you do not forget your Spanish, but that you do not forget this country, about whose people you have learned, whose people you have seen and spoken with, and whom you have found to also be good people, with the same kind of problems you have.

Por primera vez ustedes salen a enfrentarse con la responsabilidad de tomar decisiones — sus propias decisiones — en el mundo. Hasta ahora han vivido una vida fácil, una vida en que papá y mamá han estado pensando por ustedes. Dejarán muy lejos a sus padres en Venezuela, pero desde aquí ellos estarán buscando en ustedes lo que han sembrado: un sentido de lo justo, de lo puro, de lo bueno, y de lo honrado.

En cada una de sus maestras ustedes han visto personas dedicadas al trabajo — personas de grandes conocimientos, muchos de los cuales han pasado a ustedes. Estos conocimientos los aumentarán ustedes en "high school" y, quizás luego en "college". Pero hay algo más que está por encima de conocimientos, y es la bondad de corazón y amor al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Son tantas las luchas hoy en el mundo, que la sola inteligencia no basta para resolverlas. El verdadero futuro de la humanidad depende de que pensemos en términos de bondad, amor, caridad; de que nos entendamos los uno a los otros; que sepamos determinar en nuestras relaciones qué es lo bueno, qué es lo correcto, y no considerarnos los unos y los otros bajo el punto de vista económico, o de la satisfacción personal que nos podíamos proporcionar.

De mis previas experiencias pude decírselas que la mejor manera de actuar es mirar a los demás como deseamos que ellos nos miren. En la Universidad de Harvard, por ejemplo, las relaciones humanas se basan en un sólo principio — y es, juzgar a los demás en la misma forma en que juzgamos que nos juzguen. Ahora que ustedes son más señoritas y más hombres, necesitarán tomar una amplia visión hacia la humanidad — mirar en cada cual la parte buena y no la parte mala. Y esto lo podrán realizar sólo con amor hacia los hombres — amor hacia la humanidad. El mundo se está revolviendo y con ustedes la nueva fuerza para mantenerlo unido. Es necesario que traten de inculcar en este nuevo mundo el concepto de entendernos, porque somos todos ciudadanos del mundo. Todos somos buenos. La gente que vive en otros países también aman y sufren como nosotros. Miremos entonces a la humanidad sin muchas barreras — sin muchas fronteras.

Igualmente, quiero decírselas lo mismo en relación con las razas y los credos religiosos, y también les pido que miren éstos desde un punto de vista de amor. Tanto el blanco como el negro, como el chino, como el indio, somos hombres, y sentimos por igual. No debemos discriminar.

Podemos tomar como ejemplo las grandes organizaciones industriales — la Standard Oil de Nueva Jersey — la Creole Petroleum Corporation. Uno de los principios básicos de la Creole es el de la no-discriminación. Aquí en esta Compañía, de cuya Directiva me siento honrado de ser miembro, todos los hombres tenemos iguales oportunidades.

I hope that you have understood everything I have said, and that you will carry away with you some of the thoughts I gave you in Spanish. I congratulate you and your parents upon your graduation, and wish you success — and I know you will succeed!

Hail,

I'm sorry that I didn't see you this summer but I'll try to see you this coming summer. I've had a wonderful time this Christmas with you and Janet. Stay as sweet, cute & as understanding as you are now.

Love always to a wonderful friend,

Anne

Hail,

You have really helped make my Christmas vacation be one of the very best I have ever had. You will always be one of my dearest friends & certainly one I'll always remember. Best of luck always and write often. I'm going to miss you like anything. God bless you always. Love, Jan

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Bobbie Johnson, leave to Rollin Johnson my ability to hit the target in hunting.

I, Annie Bodden, will this everlasting pony tail to Kimara Valbuena so she will no longer mourn her lost one.

I, Beth Cardwell, will to Ron Roughhead a bottle of Freckle Remover so that when he returns to New York his family will recognize him.

I, Gary Keller, will to Bill Butler my dark skin so he won't get sunburned.

I, J. P. Terrier, will to Vernie Bodden my ability to say a lot in a few words.

I, Gail Cambre, will to Janet Nixon a book entitled, "How to Catch Him and Keep Him".

I, Ronnie Sellers, will my dancing shoes to Einar Sverstoel so the dancing won't come too hard to him.

I, Patricia MacMillan, leave Betty Amos my old pair of running shoes so that she will be able to make more home runs.

I, Joen Elzen, will to Connie Carmack my seat next to Rollin Johnson.

I, Ray Farnum, will to Randy Trahan my never-fail method for winning at chess.

I, Gail Russell, will to Anne Glackin an old fountain pen and a box of paper so that she can write to all of us from Caracas.
